

Questions:

Do students, advisors, and administrators have any additional attributes or methods specific to their roles?
 Can users have multiple roles simultaneously?
 What info should be included in the Profile class?
 Are there any additional functionalities related to academic planning that need to be considered?
 How should course registration and prerequisites be handled?
 Any specific requirements for academic advising interactions?
 Do administrators have any additional functionalities beyond managing accounts and configuring system settings?
 Are there any specific accessibility standards/school guidelines that need to be followed?
 Are there any specific security measures or data privacy compliance requirements?
 Are there any specific scalability requirements for the system?

